The Cat Who Saved Books
By Sosuke Natsukawa

All are welcome to attend!

Join us to discuss this quirky, heartwarming and charming book-filled mystery about finding courage—caring for others—and the tremendous power of books, by a Japanese bestselling author.

Graphic Novels now available!
Find them next to Fantasy/Sci-Fi.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten
Start your journey today!

Sign up in the Children's room and get your sheet to help keep count of the first 100 books! When you finish reading 100 books, come back to the library for another set of sheets and a prize. We will celebrate all who finish reading 1000 books with a special event. Registration is open for all children between birth and five years old.

The Capital Crime of Witchcraft
Thursday,
October 20
at 6:30pm

On first impression, the witchcraft trials of the Colonial era may seem to have been nothing but a free-for-all, fraught with hysterics. Margo Burns explores an array of prosecutions, and the reversals of attainder and rescinding of excommunications years after the fact; demonstrating how methodically and logically the Salem Court worked.

Classic Movie Night
Monday, October 17
at 5:30pm

Out of the Past
RKO Pictures, 1947
Runs 1 hour 37 minutes

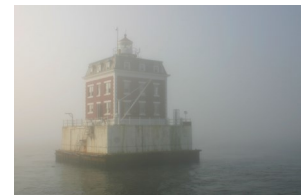

A private eye escapes his past to run a gas station in a small town, but his past catches up with him. Now he must return to the big city world of danger, corruption, double crosses and duplicitous dames..

Movie introduction presented by local movie buff Glenn Bergeron. Popcorn and water served.

Haunted Lighthouses
Thursday, October 27
at 630pm

Presented by New England Lighthouse expert

Jeremy D'Entremont.

Lighthouses are picturesque icons that remind us of our rich maritime history, but they also have a "dark side." Lighthouses and ghost stories often seem to go hand in hand, as confirmed by the many horror stories and movies that have utilized lighthouses as their settings. This presentation will focus on some of the macabre tales of New England's coastal beacons.
